TORONTO – The newly branded Chelsea Hotel, Toronto has just completed phase one of a multi-million dollar renovation. This exciting transformation included the lobby, Market Garden restaurant, meeting/banquet spaces as well as the addition of three Langham brand signatures – express|o, T|Bar and the Vertical Garden.

“We are pleased to share a design philosophy of smart, modern and uncomplicated interiors together with added-value essentials,” says Josef Ebner, regional vice-president, Canada and managing director, the Chelsea Hotel, Toronto. “With a newly vibrant and fresh environment, the Chelsea delivers everything one could need at exceptional value.”

The completely refurbished Market Garden restaurant, featuring express|o coffee bar, is the solution for diners with little time to spare. Guests can browse the market-style aisles stocked with grab-and-go items or they can take advantage of a ‘plug and play’ option while enjoying a beverage on comfortable and modern high level seating open to the lobby. T|Bar is the venue of choice for either pre-dinner or late-night cocktails, including a curated selection of homemade Caesars, for guests and the local community alike. The impressive new modern and lively lobby lounge is another Langham brand signature addition to the hotel.

Included as part of the re-designed lobby is a ‘Vertical Garden’ creating a soothing atmosphere for today’s busy travellers. This living art installation represents Langham’s commitment to sustainable living through eco-friendly hospitality solutions.

All function and meeting spaces have been upgraded to include new carpeting, wall and window coverings, lighting and furniture. This extensive ‘facelift’ is sure to delight meeting planners and conference delegates who choose the Chelsea for their next event. Connectivity is also a key component of the Eaton brand. The Chelsea Hotel has that covered with complimentary WiFi in all guestrooms and public spaces, as well as an E Point business area in the lobby.

As the hotel continues to deliver an enhanced guest experience and set the benchmark within its competitive set, renovations will continue into 2014. This includes refurbishing of the hotel's balconies and the addition of E-Club, an exclusive lounge for guests staying in one of the hotel's signature Club Rooms.
