March 15, 2016

TORONTO – Canada’s largest hotel, Chelsea Hotel, Toronto will celebrate “Loving Earth Month” starting from Earth Hour (19 March) to Earth Day (22 April) by engaging colleagues and guests to minimize environmental and social footprints.

For the ninth consecutive year, the hotel will participate in the global climate change awareness initiative – Earth Hour – on Saturday March 19, 2016. In addition to going dark, the hotel will further demonstrate its commitment to the environment by providing guests with a host of energy-saving service offerings to choose from during their stay that range from creative dining options to family-friendly activities.

To support Earth Hour, the hotel will:

- Turn off exterior signage and non-essential lighting
- Partnership with Mill Street Brewery’s “Lights Out” in T|BAR
- Serve ‘Glow in the Dark’ cocktails and live acoustic performer in T|BAR

Throughout Loving Earth Month, the hotel will continue to support green initiatives by offering “Meatless Monday” as a means to reduce the carbon footprint by providing vegetarian menu options. Additionally, hotel colleagues will be encouraged to be more active and use less transportation. The 10,000 “CheAthlete” Step Challenge – a four week fun and creative daily initiative – will launch on Earth Hour with a goal of 8,761, 250 steps – enough to cross Canada (7,009 km). On the final day of Loving Earth Month – Earth Day – hotel colleagues will visit Toronto Island Park to assist with the annual spring clean up.

The hotel has also embarked on significant social projects, such as the ongoing efforts to be environmentally responsible through its sustainability program, EarthCheck - an environmental management program for the travel and tourism industry, which provides organization’s a vehicle for sustainability reporting and is based on the premise of continual improvement. Last year, the hotel was awarded Bronze Certified status by EarthCheck and the Chelsea’s goal is to continue delivering a clean, safe, prosperous and healthy destination for travelers. For 2016, the hotel is expecting to be awarded Silver Certified status by the end of the year.
