GAURAV KAPOOR

EXECUTIVE CHEF

CHELSEA HOTEL, TORONTO

The streets and alleys of New Delhi crackle and hiss with the kerosene burners and tandoors of street vendors. It was this sound, and the magic of having food prepared right in front of him that first drew Gaurav Kapoor (GK) to the culinary arts. Growing up in the heart of India, GK's mom and grandmother passed to him the craft of grinding together traditional aromatics and spices that had been the base for generations of family recipes. At age 11, he became responsible for making the chicken for Sunday family dinner, his first opportunity to practice their teachings as well as the techniques he watched so closely at the local stalls. Many years have since passed, but the excitement he felt at this young age still drives GK to explore and share his love of family cuisine. After collegiate culinary training, GK was selected as 1 of 20 to participate in the prestigious Taj hotel's management training program. There, under the tutelage of top national and expat chefs, he flourished in all areas of traditional and international cuisine. His travels took him to some of the top kitchens in India including Taj Palace where he helped create the grand banquets that are their hallmark. Eventually Canada called and GK ventured the across the ocean to continue his culinary odyssey in one of the world's most multicultural cities. Now, as Executive Chef at Canada's largest hotel, Gaurav is leading his own brigade. GK invites you to share his flavourful recipes with those closest to you. 'Wow' your guests and transform your special day by showcasing the authentic flavours of India.
